STAN HYWET HALL & GARDENS

THE ESTATE

Located just south of the stunning Cuyahoga Valley, Stan Hywet is conveniently close to Cleveland, yet seemingly worlds away. Originally constructed between 1912 and 1915, the majestic estate named Stan Hywet (Old English for "stone quarry") was once home to Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company co-founder F.A. Seiberling and his family.

THE MUSIC ROOM

Exchange vows in one of the most beautiful rooms in America. Crystal and amber chandeliers, rich oak wood, complemented by fine art make the Music Room the perfect choice for your formal event.

The room extends to lush grounds when the South Terrace doors are opened to the London Plane Tree Allée—a lovely setting for pre- or post-wedding celebrations.

Let the Manor House Music Room and picturesque grounds
create an unforgettable
wedding experience
that is uniquely you.

HISTORY

The Seiberling family loved to entertain. At 2,000 square feet and with 18-foot high molded plaster ceilings, the Music Room was used for concerts, recitals and family gatherings, including performances by conductor Leopold Stokowski, pianist and composer Ignace Paderewski, soprano Rosa Ponselle, and composer and musician Percy Grainger. A stage is located at the south end of the room, and at the north end is the Musicians' Balcony and the restored Aeolian Organ. The Seiberling's oldest daughter Irene was married in the Music Room on Christmas Day 1923.

ROOM CAPACITY

The Music Room can accommodate a maximum of 100 guests. Due to the nature of the Manor House and museum collection, this policy must be strictly enforced—no exceptions.
