

Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens

The Reinberger Classroom

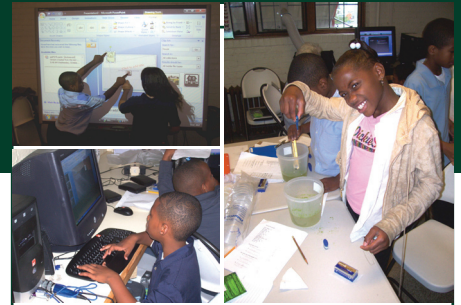

The Reinberger Classroom located in Stan Hywet's Gardener's Cottage is available to any educator free of charge for classroom instruction and technology-based learning. This classroom is funded by the generous support of The Reinberger Foundation, AT&T and Chase Bank.

Incorporated with state-of-the-art technology, this interactive classroom is available to K-12 students and teachers who are interested in developing activities and projects to enhance individual curricula and strengthen students' learning experiences. The classroom offers students and teachers the opportunity to combine unique field trip experiences with cutting-edge technology.

The Reinberger Classroom offers:

- Five student and one instructor Dell Inspiron 9400 notebook computers
- A 77" interactive Smartboard
- Lumen LCD data projector with speakers and amplifier
- Distance learning capability
- Lumen digital document camera
- Sony handycam digital camcorder and accessory kit
- Six digital microscopes
- Six video cameras and movie creator software
- Eight hand-held writing tools and hand-held computers with peripherals
- Eight USB temperature probes
- A wide variety of software and internet access

Although there are no fees associated with classroom or equipment use, reservations are required and a nominal fee will be charged for additional estate tours and facility use.
