Stan Hywet's Deck the Hall Featured on New Ohio Holiday Lights Trail

November 22, 2019 - Akron, Ohio – Just in time for the holiday season, TourismOhio has launched the 2019 Holiday Lights Trail promoted by Ohio. Find It Here. Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens, with one million lights decorating the estate for Deck the Hall: A Classic Comic Hero Christmas, is one of 30 distinctive light displays featured throughout the state on the Trail.

Stan Hywet is located at 714 North Portage Path in Akron, Ohio.

“The Ohio Holiday Lights Trail is a wonderful way to help travelers discover outstanding light displays and activities to enjoy during the holiday season throughout the state,” notes Sean Joyce, President & Executive Director. “We are thrilled that Stan Hywet is part of TourismOhio’s Holidays In Ohio campaign encouraging visitors to travel to Ohio to see what makes our state special.”

The Ohio Holiday Lights Trail is a part of TourismOhio’s #HolidaysInOhio campaign, encouraging travelers and visitors to make new memories while experiencing Ohio’s seasonal attractions and events. Travelers can browse the Ohio Holiday Lights Trail at ohio.org/holidays for a map and more information.

About Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens

Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens is the former home of Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company co-founder F.A. Seiberling and his family. Completed in 1915, it is an important example of an American Country Estate built by wealth created during the Industrial Age. Since 1957, it has been a historic house museum, and is open to the public for tours from April – December. The sixth largest historic home open to the public, Stan Hywet includes a 65-room Manor House and 70 acres of landscaped gardens and grounds. It is Akron’s largest National Historic Landmark and is accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. For more information, visit stanhywet.org
