The Annual Father's Day Car Show at Stan Hywet Has Been Cancelled

May 26, 2020 - Akron, Ohio – The Classic, Antique, & Collector Car Show scheduled for June 21 at Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens has been cancelled due to the coronavirus pandemic. One of the oldest car shows in America, this would have been the 63rd annual display of vehicles on the Great Meadow.

“We’re all very disappointed that we can’t go on with the show this year. In addition to the Ohio Region Classic Car Club of America (ORCCCA), we would like to thank all of our partners who normally make it a very special Father’s Day and Akron tradition by providing family activities, concessions, and music: Home Depot – Fairlawn, Summit Metro Parks, QS Jazz, Kona-Ice, Winking Lizard, Cadillac Mike DJ services, and the Stan Hywet Historic Players,” says Sean M. Joyce, President & Executive Director of Stan Hywet Hall & Gardens.

Guests who purchased tickets to attend the car show will be issued a refund by Stan Hywet. Car owners who registered to display their vehicles on the Great Meadow will receive a refund from ORCCCA.
